

---

Subject: Re: identifying districts

Posted by Liz-DHS on Fri, 31 Mar 2017 19:07:50 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

A response from data processing expert, Claudia Marchena:

Quote:

In surveys before 2009 the consent for SPA surveys did not allow to share locations for facilities nor facility names. Providing this piece of information will potentially identify facilities since, for instance, there are few hospitals and if district location would have been provided, it could identify the hospital. This would violate the confidentiality terms set for SPA surveys before 2009.

---