Dear User,

Please look over the Guide to DHS Statistics. The document is bookmarked and there is a section on calculating birth intervals.

http://www.measuredhs.com/pubs/pdf/DHSG1/Guide_to_DHS_Statistics_29Oct2012_DHSG1.pdf

The section which should provide some guidance is under the bookmark III. Guide to Individual Statistics and is the 3rd bookmark under that. After looking this over, if you have specific questions, please get back to us.

Thanks you!
