

---

Subject: Re: Missing anthropometry data for African countries

Posted by fredarnold on Wed, 24 Oct 2018 17:24:24 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Subsamples are used for questions or biomarkers in many DHS surveys for a variety of reasons, including cost savings, ensuring data quality by reducing the total interview time, the lack of a need of estimates of certain indicators at the lowest administrative level, or the fact that similar information was recently collected in another survey.

---