
Subject: Re: Egypt DHS District Data
Posted by user-rhs on Fri, 21 Mar 2014 21:50:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

E-mail your university's geography department professors, development economics professors, public health professors, etc. or do a Google search for Egypt district shapefiles. That's what I would do if I were in your situation. Take advantage of the fact that you are still at university and ask within your faculty.

It's also probably a good idea to schedule an appointment with someone in your university that can show you how to get started using QGIS. Good luck.
