

---

Subject: Re: Need Clarification: DV weight
Posted by Bridgette-DHS on Thu, 07 Mar 2019 17:26:03 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Following is a response from Senior DHS Stata Specialist, Tom Pullum:

There is not a problem. You should divide by 1 million, as you did. You should use the DV weight, as you did. The weighted and unweighted numbers for subsamples will always differ, and sometimes by a surprisingly large amount--for example 10% or more. This happens regardless of which weight you use.