Subject: Re: Death registration
Posted by leahmoody on Fri, 15 Mar 2019 20:41:22 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I agree with Tayler Wurdeman that recording prompt, specific death certificates is essential to ascertain and alleviate the top causes of death. Relying on modeled data can fail to reflect recent population changes, whereas having recorded data with specific details of the care received surrounding time of death can allow potential deficiencies in care to be revealed and corrected swiftly.