

---

Subject: Re: Death registration

Posted by Rachel Koch on Fri, 15 Mar 2019 21:35:26 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Peri-operative mortality is a difficult metric to track particularly once patients leave hospitals. Inclusion of whether the person had a surgical procedure (including c-section) within 30 days of death in all death registries would be a big step forward in collecting this data and understanding outcomes for surgical patients.

---