

---

Subject: Re: postpartum hemorrhage

Posted by amoran on Thu, 10 Apr 2014 14:29:12 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

I also strongly agree that we need a question on prophylactic use of oxytocin to prevent PPH. However, given the results of the Mozambique validation study (PLoS One), it is not feasible to include this type of question in a household survey. I agree that we will need to work to get this information from facility-based data. However, it is important to assess the feasibility of asking about use of misoprostol tablets to prevent PPH.

---