

---

Subject: Re: How to use cluster and strata variables in ever married surveys?

Posted by Han on Thu, 24 Dec 2020 02:15:35 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Dear Kerry MacQuarrie,

Thanks a lot for this clear and elaborated reply.

I intended to calculate the prevalence of underweight in a ever-married women survey with a complex sampling design using a IR file. According to your suggestion, I now understand that I have no need to adjust for awf when calculating this prevalence in such surveys.

Best Regards

Han

---