
Subject: Re: Reproduction of marriage data in report
Posted by Trevor-DHS on Sun, 07 Sep 2014 22:05:13 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The difference comes about because not all women are successfully interviewed, as you mentioned, and the non-response rates vary. If the response rate is very high then you will get almost the same result, but if the response rate is a little lower for a group then you may get a bigger difference. You are likely to find the biggest differences in the younger ages groups.
