Subject: Re: How to use weights to analyse HIV data further
Posted by Bridgette-DHS on Wed, 10 Apr 2013 14:59:19 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

You need to check the manual of the software you are using for guidelines on using weights. Weights in the DHS data are multiplied by 1,000,000, so to get the right figures, you need to always divide the weights you are using by 1,000,000.

For more information on using DHS data for analysis, please go to:
http://www.measuredhs.com/data/Using-Datasets-for-Analysis.c fm.