Subject: Re: Women's anemia status

Posted by Trevor-DHS on Fri, 05 Jul 2013 14:53:15 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

DHS does not make any adjustment for trimester of pregnancy, but rather uses the more conservative adjustment of 1 g/dl for all pregnant women. This is partly due to the historical series that DHS reports and partly due to uncertainty of the accuracy of the trimester of pregnancy.