
Subject: Re: Ghana DHS survey
Posted by Liz-DHS on Thu, 06 Aug 2015 22:06:01 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Dear User,

Yes, blood pressure and anthropometry were measured. There was a question on religion and a question on ethnicity. The final report is currently being drafted. The country needs to have the final seminar to announce the completion of the survey and results before the report or data can go on our website for download. Once the final report is released and they have the final seminar, the data will be available for download around the same time.

Thank you!
