
Subject: Re: using svy function to run cross tabs
Posted by Reduced-For\(u\)m on Fri, 23 Oct 2015 21:07:07 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

One option would be to run OLS ("reg") with dummy variables for the 3 categories of v761 you want (no constant). Then you could use the "test" commands to test the equality of the groups (in whatever pair-wise or all-at-once way you wanted).

That would account for all of the survey design as long as you used the "svy" prefix before the regression. I think that should work.
