Hi!

PLEASE IGNORE THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS I POSTED!!
(I THINK I HAVE GOT THEM)

It would be really helpful if the following points are clarified by anyone on the forum;

1. Is 'never been in union' equivalent to 'never married'?
2. What does 'currently in union' indicate? Is it same as 'currently married'?

Is it possible to have get any 'instructions manual' for NFHS-5, that usually are provided to the field enumerators. That would be useful.

Thank you

Regards
Rupon

Below are the instructions for marital status in the NFHS-5 Interviewer's Manual:

Column (8): CURRENT MARITAL STATUS

Column (8) is concerned with the current marital status of respondents who are 13 years or older. Thus, you should not record an answer in Column (8) if the respondent is 12 years or younger.
