

---

Subject: use of unmodified coordinates for spatial variables

Posted by smurray on Mon, 27 Jul 2015 14:40:09 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Sorry for the late submission, but grateful if you could address the following question tomorrow. Depending on the distribution of health facilities, much of the variation in a variable based on distance to facility may be in the less than 10 km range. Do you have plans for generating some core spatial variables for dissemination with the DHS surveys using the unmodified coordinates? If so, what methods would be used to ensure that communities can not be uniquely identified given the new information?

---