Modules are optional, and address special topics of interest. They can be added to survey questionnaires on a county-by-country basis. The Modules currently on offer in the DHS Program are:

Maternal Mortality Module (categorized in Maternal and Child Health).

Domestic Violence Module (categorized in Gender).

Female Genital Cutting Module (categorized in Gender).

Fistula (categorized in Gender).

Out-of-pocket Health Expenditures (categorized in Health Systems Strengthening).

The Modules are attached to this thread.
